

Temple Israel Reform Congregation of Staten Island Adult Learning Committee

Invites you to a Zoom Presentation featuring

Rabbi Samuel Barth

Jerusalem of Gold and Stone...of Memories and Dreams

We will be looking at the ways that the physical and metaphorical Jerusalem appears in Jewish texts, and in poetry art and music, from the most ancient times until this year. Please join Rabbi to learn some things not well known to us, and as Rabbi Sami says, "look at what has entered the shared heart and soul of so many".

Wednesday, May 13, 2026 at 7:30pm

Rabbi Samuel Barth, a widely experienced Rabbi and college professor, who is presently at the Jewish Fellowship of Hemlock Farms in Pennsylvania. Rabbi Barth has served for decades in the development and education of the next generation of rabbis. He has been a teacher and administrator at three different rabbinical schools. His primary interest is in Liturgy and Jewish ritual. He is deeply connected to Israel and is interested in helping young people connect to their heritage and to Israel.
